Areas of expertise: Policy processes that interlink ocean and climate change issues

Dorthée Herr is fresh from Oxford University with a masters in environmental change and management, Dorothee spent three months as a research fellow at IUCN US before being recruited full-time as an Assistant to Thomas Laughlin, Deputy Head of the Global Marine Program.

Despite being native of land locked Luxembourg, Dorothee's is particularly interested in policy processes that interlink ocean and climate change issues as well as the governance of high seas.

Fluent in four languages Dorothee comes to IUCN with extensive experience within the private sector, government agencies and NGOs having worked at the Luxembourg Ministry of the Environment, Greenpeace and CEPS/INSTEAD.
