INVITATION

You are invited to join us at the Species Pavilion, the hub for everything related to species and the Red List at the Congress

- Showcasing the wonders of biodiversity, the Red List and the work of the species experts of the SSC
- Forging new partnerships, ideas, and solutions to safeguard species
- Meet the Species Experts – daily coffee breaks with the Specialist Group Chairs of SSC (11:00 – 11:30 daily on all days of the Forum)
- Rolling photos, slideshows, video, and interactive screens
- Try the new IUCN Red List website at any time
- Demonstrations of the tools for Red Listing (the Species Information Service)
- A relaxing lounge and stunning photo exhibit

The Species Pavilion is a joint effort of the Environment Agency Abu Dhabi, Conservation International, and the IUCN Species Programme. It will primarily showcase the IUCN Red List and the work of the Species Survival Commission.
